

Before the Federal Communications Commission Enforcement Bureau

In the Matter of the Investigation into Carrier
Compliance with 47 CFR 2009, Customer
Proprietary Network Information.

)
)
)
)

EB Docket No. 06-36
EB-06-TC-060

Certification of CPNI Filing - February 3, 2006

I, Richard Hutchinson, an owner/partner of Circle Telephone Company (Circle) hereby certify that Circle is in full compliance with the Commission's Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI) rules as found in 47 CFR 64.2009(e). I further certify, based on my personal knowledge, the following:

1. Circle is a local exchange carrier servicing the remote village of Circle, Alaska.
2. Circle currently provides local dial tone service to 41 customers.
3. Circle has no affiliate operations and no competitive entry in its serving area.
4. Circle's current procedures prohibit the disclosure of CPNI to third party entities and use of CPNI for marketing purposes.
5. All employees and/or partners are strictly prohibited from releasing CPNI to third party entities and the use of CPNI for marketing purposes.

Respectfully submitted, this 5th day of February, 2006.

Richard Hutchinson, Partner

CIRCLE TELEPHONE COMPANY
P.O. Box 1
Circle, Alaska 99733

CPNI OPERATING PROCEDURES

Customer Proprietary Network Information (CPNI), such as calling patterns, call logs, services provided, financial information, address and any other customer information is only available to the individual customer. Prior to disclosure of information to the customer, proper identification must first be provided.

CPNI disclosure to a third party is strictly prohibited.